

Terms and Conditions

Parties

The following Terms and Conditions relate to all events promoted by Hayle Tri.

Terms

All above named organisations from this point forward will be referred to as "The Promoters". All applicants both prospective and successful from this point forward will be referred to as "The Applicants".

From the moment that the above companies start to organise an event, there is a considerable amount of work, expense & risk. Each event takes many hundreds of hours of forward planning, thousands of pounds of expense, as well as financial risk. As with all companies incurring overheads such as premises, staff, marketing, equipment, insurance, websites, etc. Financial planning is an integral part of event management and promotion and as such we endeavour to ensure that we can cover unexpected on costs so as to provide a secure footing for all events promoted. The following 'Terms & Conditions' are set in place to ensure that we continue to provide athletes with safe & enjoyable events, year on year.

1: Conditions of Entry: By entering any events as made available on the www.hayletri.co.uk website, be it by use of the online entry system or paper based system, applicants are agreeing to abide by the following 'Terms & Conditions' as outlined below.

2: Confirmation of Entry: Cashing of an applicant's cheque or satisfactory completion of transaction through the online payment systems confirms the applicants place in the race/event for which they have applied.

3: Race Information: All necessary race Information pertaining to individual events are published on www.hayletri.co.uk Please note that details of individual events as published on race specific entry forms and provisional race information is subject to change. Updated details of any alterations to race information initially issued will be made available on the web no later than one week prior to the event date. It is the responsibility of competitors to ensure they have accessed the relevant information relating to their event.

4: Competitor Withdrawal: If for any reason applicants who have already successfully entered an event find themselves unable to race and wish to withdraw from the event. The applicant must inform us by writing to: Hayle Tri - Withdrawals, 4 Treswithian, Camborne, Cornwall, TR14 7NW. To enable us to send your refund / race credit back, please include an A5 SAE. This request will entitle the applicant to a credit in line with the credit policies as outlined below. Please note all withdrawals must be done in writing. We will accept emails as your withdrawal date, but please post a copy of your email along with an SAE within 3 days of sending your email.

Please note that occasionally credits / refunds will not be sent until after the event has taken place, which the applicant has withdrawn from.

5: Credit Policy (General): Applicants, who inform the events office in writing of their wish to withdraw from an event before the closing date of the event as outlined on the race specific entry form, will receive a Race Credit for 50% of the value of the original entry fee. Please note that Race Credits are not transferable between applicants or race promoters. Applicants not notifying the events office of their wish to withdraw from an event until after the closing date as outlined on the race specific entry form and applicants who do not attend the race/event will not receive any form of refund/credit.

6: Transfer of Entry: Under no circumstances are applicants permitted to transfer their entry to either another event, or to another individual. Applicants wishing to transfer their entry to another race, are required to follow the guidelines as outlined in Competitor Withdrawal and Credit Policy as outlined above, using the Race Credit supplied where applicable to re-apply for another race/event.

7: Registration: Details of race registration times relating to specific events will be posted on confirmed race information. All athletes are required to attend registration within the times specified. Applicants who do not attend registration within these times will not be allowed to race, and will lose their right to a place in that race/event. It is the responsibility of competitors to ensure they have accessed the relevant information relating to registration at their event.

8: Photography: The promoters maintain the right to use images and photographs taken by their contracted photographers and employees at the event without informing of or recompense to event participants. These images can be used for promotional purposes as undertaken by the promoters and their partners, which will cover a range of possible uses including advertising press and media, printed information items, editorial coverage and any other promotion directly related to the promoters or their sponsors.

9: Prizes: Prizes at each event will be awarded in age categories as outlined on individual event race information and competitors who are awarded a prize are required to attend presentation in order to receive their prize. In the case where the aforementioned competitors are not in attendance at prize giving they are deemed to have foregone their right to the prize and the prize will not be awarded.

10: Completion of Entry Form: Where utilising the paper based system, it is vital for applicants to complete the entry form fully and neatly. In the case where athletes do not complete sections properly or fully, a 'default' entry for that section will be allocated as outlined below:

- If applicants do not complete the 'date of birth' section, they will be allocated a 'default' age of 100, and will not be eligible for prizes.

Whilst the promoters will endeavour to solve any problems that arise through incorrectly completed entry forms, if unable to read any section of the entry form, the form will be returned to the applicant with a request for it to be complete it again without the securing of a confirmed place in the event.

11: Late Entries: If there are still places available after the closing date, applicants must include an additional fee to cover additional administration work as outlined on the entry form. If applicants do not include the late entry fee, then the application will be returned.

12: Event Changes: The above named Promoters have the right to change any event for the reason of safety without prior notice.

13: Event Cancellation: If for reasons beyond the control of the Promoters the race/event, which applicants have entered is cancelled, the Promoters will offer a full refund where requested. Alternatively the Promoters will issue a full Race Credit to the value of the original entry fee or transfer the applicants entry to another race/events where requested.

14: Right of refusal for entry: The Promoters maintain the right to refuse or revoke entry to any applicant, where they believe that accepting the entry could prejudice the event, the promoting organisation their sponsors, associates or staff. This right of refusal extends to include applications where acceptance is considered by the promoters to be likely to infringe upon the enjoyment of any persons connected with the event, including staff, marshals, volunteers & other competitors.
